

Key Features and Functionality of Vizit™ and ViziaMe.com

Vizit Frame:

- Vizit leverages a cellular connection and includes an Internet access capabilities to deliver a rich user experience. The cellular connection offers ubiquitous coverage to the frame, enabling the frame to constantly receive photos and to be mobile as opposed to tethered to a wi-fi connection.
- Vizit's 10.4" full touch screen features easy-to-use icons and an intuitive carousel menu to navigate through photos.
- Two-way Communication Device:
 1. Vizit frames receive photos from email, MMS (picture messages) or by receiving photos that a user uploads to their personal ViziaMe.com account.
 2. Vizia users can send photos from their frame to cell phones, email accounts or other Vizia frames.
- Users can share photos from their frame with friends and family by sending a photo to their cell phone number, email address or their Vizit.

ViziaMe.com:

- Users can create a friend and family contact list on ViziaMe.com, authenticating these contacts to send photos to the frame. The frame is secure, only allowing this contact list to send photos to the frame.
- ViziaMe.com allows the frame to be remotely managed as well. Uploading new photos, changing captions and resequencing photos can all be done from the ViziaMe.com account.
- ViziaMe.com will offer direct ordering of photo prints and gifts, making everything from personalized mugs and posters to photo books/albums.

Vizit Experience:

- The Vizit frame and the ViziaMe.com account are part of the overall Vizit experience, provided by a monthly or annual subscription for the cellular connection.
- Vizit's subscription provides:
 - Always-on cellular connectivity
 - Reception of photos by web, email or MMS
 - Two-way photo sharing with friends and family
 - Automatic updates by frame receiving new photos
 - Unlimited storage on photo management account
 - Access to third-party Internet content

*Regardless of what wireless carrier one uses, ANYONE can subscribe to Vizit. Other digital photo frames on the market require you to have an existing relationship with their specific carrier. The Vizit does not have such requirements.
